29th October 2017
Term four, week three

Dear Parents and Caregivers,
What an awesome turn out on Friday for the working bee. We really do appreciate it so thank you very much for all your hard work.

THIS WEEK'S AWARDS:

Congratulations to Georgia Roberts and Jack Roberts who received our VALUES certificates for SELF MANAGEMENT this week. Georgia received her award for being such a self-regulating learner always making the choice to do more than she needs to. Jack received his award for always being prepared for learning, and always working hard to keep focused.

SCHOOL VALUE: the value at the heart of our learning community over the next two weeks is RESPECT.

CONGRATULATIONS also to Kairo Taurima who received a classroom award for his hard work in reading and writing. Mikaera Tamatea received his award for showing such enthusiasm and independence in completing all VLN responsibilities.

SCHOOL NEWS:

Rere School Pets Day, Friday 16th of November;

All displays are to be in the Library between 9 – 9.30 am. Please note the following exhibit - decorated cake, farm scene in a box, sand saucers and vegetable animals are to be completed at home and brought to school on the day. School exhibits will include a poster, photo (to be sent via email from home), art work and a description. The criteria by which these are judged was attached to week one newsletter for your information. There will be morning tea for adults in the community room at 9.30. Please bring a plate to share. Judging begins 10am on the top field. Can the entries for the Pets please be in by this Friday. Please contact the office if you require another entry form. Late entry pets can be added on the day but the names will be missing from the programme. Please remember that there are no school buses running on the day.

The end of the year is fast approaching. It is time to prepare for prize giving so could all cups please be returned to school as soon as possible. Thanking you in anticipation.
