Term two, week ten

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Last week before the holidays. We hope you all have an awesome break together, keep safe and we will see everyone back rearing to go on the 24th July.

THIS WEEK'S AWARDS:

Congratulations to Georgia Roberts and Charlie Worsnop who received our VALUES certificates for RESPONSIBILITY this week. Georgia received her award for consistently showing a highly responsible attitude to all learning. Charlie received his award for being such a responsible learner by always completing his work to his highest standard.

SCHOOL VALUE: the value at the heart of our learning community this week remains RESPONSIBILITY.

CONGRATULATIONS also to Keanu Robin who received a classroom award for his awesome commitment to practicing the basic skills in maths and spelling at home. Jack Cheetham for remembering his "I can do" mindset.

SCHOOL NEWS:

Tomorrow is our -5 Lunch Box day. This is our last one for the year. Thank you to all those who participated with such thought. Some children really do have the best fuel possible to keep them going through a very busy learning day.

SLC are this Wednesday and Thursday. If you haven't sent your preferred conference time in yet we will still give you a time. These will be going home today. If the time you have been given is not suitable please ring as soon as possible so we can reschedule.

This week Wednesday we have a visit from our Dream Team representative Matt Todd. The Sir Peter Blake Trust Dream Team is a group of inspirational Kiwi leaders who every year aim to inspire thousands of Kiwi kids to follow their dreams. They visit schools to tell their stories, plant seeds of inspiration, and encourage young New Zealanders to have big dreams and back themselves to make them happen. The Dream Team happens during Leadership Week from 3 - 7 July 2017. The theme for 2017's programme is #believeyoucan, which is taken directly from Sir Peter's last voyage when he wrote, 'To win, you have to believe you can do it'. The aim of the Dream Team is to encourage all Kiwis to back themselves to achieve their dreams - just as Sir Peter Blake did.

RED SOCK DAY this Friday - In 1995 one of our greatest New Zealanders did an extraordinary thing. He pulled on a humble pair of Red Socks and took on the most powerful teams in the world to win one of the oldest and most coveted sporting trophies – the America's Cup.

Today, Sir Peter Blake's Red Socks have become a reminder of the importance of dreaming big, and a celebration of the indomitable Kiwi spirit that makes those dreams happen. This year, Red Socks Day is taking place on Friday 7 July. We will be celebrating being a nation of people who have big dreams, and go out and make them happen - like Sir Peter Blake did. If you don't have any red socks wear anything red to help celebrate the day.

As usual the last day of school will be Freaky Friday team building day. The activities this time are being organised by Tess and Sophie who have organised a wild food challenge, something Sophie has always wanted to do, which should be a lot of fun and provide the opportunity for much laughter. Catherine Ewen will be providing the food as a leaving celebration for Lexie and Sophie.
