Term three, week one

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Welcome back to the new term and a busy one it is going to be too. Attached to this newsletter you will find the term's calendar and also the assembly host dates for your reference. You can also access these via the website www.rere.school.nz. We would like to also welcome Nicora and Luca Pell to Rere School. Nicora is 7 and Luca is 5 and have started at school today in the junior room.

THIS WEEK'S AWARDS:

Congratulations to Hannah Steele and Ted Garnham who received our VALUES certificates for RESPONSIBILITY for the last week of term two. Hannah received her award for developing a positive mindset at school. Ted received his award for being such a responsible learner by always completing his work to his highest standard.

SCHOOL VALUE: the value at the heart of our learning community this week over the next two weeks is RESPECT.

CONGRATULATIONS also to Sophia Green who received a classroom award for her self-managing skills by making good learning choices. Jack Cheetham for his great progress with art.

SCHOOL NEWS:

Thank you to all those who took time to respond to the 'Name that Space' vote. There was such a wide range of interesting ideas put forward. I thought I might need to have another vote using the most preferred choices but there was a very clear winner. Hence forth our OC will be called KariNui (plentiful garden). Now to design the sign!
